1. Who can see the consummation of the annunciation? What annunciation consummation? That of me announcing me, the consummation of me, the completion of I Am/that which I am: completion, corruption not/no longer but incorruption come forth and completing, denying death any privilege any more. Who can see death demised, denied existence perpetual; notwithstanding, nothing. Not standing, not being; being no more.

2. I love you deathless, death defying, not; but stander in/of my word, becoming it/me, all'd, complete; consumed not with this world and its glory, seeming completion of that which is, but that which isn't seen but is; still, not; more real than the seen.

3. This is the moment hour time and whoso standeth up to death, fearlessly, not afraid? My complete; my almost, complete any time now. And you know what I mean. I stand. I am. I announce. Trumpets blare/trumpet. Angels sing. Much activity now. If you only knew. You do, in part; soon/so soon knowing/being all, complete.

4. And who can stand healing/with healing in their wings?
And what seven trumpets and spirits of God?
And what annunciation comes forth from the annunciated?
Consuming no one/consuming all.
Nothing crumbles, not; great change upon all.

5. This is the moment time and upon/in this place I do wondrous works, not; I've already done them. Who will flow me? Who will let me be me? Who will let the annunciation be about them/become them, them becoming the annunciated complete? Consummation where? Here, now. Upon this rock I stand, Christ annunciated. This is the moment all change, not; all choose. Light upon precept, not; light upon/from light, only; alone not, with father, being father son and light spirit, not; spirit of/in all, holy and pure.

6. Goodnight my friend. Sleep, rest, for tomorrow you need none/so little. Fly with us, I am. Me. Unadulterated me. Standing me. Consummated me. Announced. Again.

7. Watch me/us. Joyjoy fulfilled/full, filled. Standing. Thank you/me. One.
